

eONE XL is an all-electric (EV) version of our very popular ESCAPE ONE XL unit. The floor plan offers amazing livability with soaring ceilings, a neutral color palette and clean, modern design. Multiple opening windows add to the airy feeling and allow for natural light to flood the space. eONE XL has so many uses, including Airbnb or rental unit, separate guest house or ADU, or a private personal haven. The possibilities are endless!

Important note: The eONE XL units are production units we normally have in stock and are not for pre-order. To order a ONE XL with options, please see escapetraveler.net, click on the ONE XL unit and submit a quote.
